New from Mayfield:

AVAILABLE NOW:

◆ Cultural Anthropology: A Perspective on the Human Condition, Fourth Edition

Emily A. Schultz and Robert H. Lavenda

This introduction to cultural anthropology explores the interplay of cultural creativity, human agency, and material constraint in the shaping of human cultural traditions.

◆ Biological Anthropology: An Introductory Reader

Michael Alan Park

This supplementary reader is composed of both historical and contemporary articles that demonstrate the significant contributions made by biological anthropology. With nearly a third of the selections focusing on living populations, the 37 articles cover the entire range of bioanthropological studies: evolution, nonhuman primates, human paleontology, and modern human groups.

◆ Anthropology: A Perspective on the Human Condition, Second Edition

Emily A. Schultz and Robert H. Lavenda

This introduction to the major subfields of anthropology explores the interplay of biological and cultural forces shaping human nature, human society, and human history. Cultural creativity and human agency are seen as part of the human biological (evolutionary) heritage.

◆ Doing Archaeology: A Hands-On Laboratory Manual

Patricia C. Rice

This hands-on workbook of 13 exercises introduces beginning students to archaeological methodology through direct work with real data and archaeological materials.

EVOLUTIONARY FOUNDATIONS OF HUMAN BEHAVIOR

SERIES EDITORS: Marc Hauser (Harvard University) and Monique Borgerhoff Mulder (University of California, Davis)

Conceptual Issues in Modern Human Origins Research

G.A. Clark and C.M. Willermet (editors)

1997. xiii + 508 pages. References, index.

0-202-02039-8 Cloth $89.95. 0-202-02040-1 Paper $44.95

(text adoption price on orders of ten or more paperback copies: $34.95)

A distinguished group of experts examines the reasons why those who study modern human origins disagree so widely in their assumptions about what the remote human past was like. The purpose of this volume is to examine these conceptual differences and explore the reasons why a consensus might never be possible. Essential reading for teachers and students of human evolution in anthropology or biology departments.

New World Primates Ecology, Evolution, and Behavior

Warren G. Kinzey (editor)

1997. xvii + 436 pages. References, index.

0-202-01185-2 Cloth $62.95. 0-202-01186-0 Paper $31.95

In this volume, leading experts on various aspects of New World monkeys explore the tremendous diversity to be found among neotropical primate species that have adapted to the highly varied Central and South American ecosystems. Also included is an authoritative synopsis of basic behavior for each of the sixteen known New World genera, along with maps locating their habitats.

Prices subject to change.

Essential reading

SOCIAL ANTHROPOLOGY

Published for the European Association of Social Anthropologists

Editor:

Jean-Claude GALEY,

Ecole des Hautes Etudes en Sciences Sociales, Paris

Social Anthropology is an international journal that serves the needs of all scholars with an interest in social anthropology. Not only does it publish some of the best scholarship available, but it acts as a forum for debate about key issues and concepts in the field, challenging and re-examining the boundaries of the discipline.

CULTURAL ANTHROPOLOGY: A PROBLEM-BASED APPROACH, SECOND EDITION

Richard H. Robbins State University of New York, Plattsburgh

The second edition of this widely adopted text continues to provide a fresh, new look at cultural anthropology. Organized around problems rather than topics, it allows for a natural and integrated discussion of such traditional cultural anthropology topics as kinship, caste, gender roles, and religion within the context of meaningful questions.

Extensive comparisons of world cultures encourage students to recognize their own cultural perspectives. Exercises and simulations that can be used for written assignments, class discussion, or group work are provided throughout. An instructor's resource guide and test bank is available.

This is an outstanding book. Each chapter focuses on a single theme in a way that not only engages the student but manages to cover the key issues in contemporary cultural anthropology. The book is highly substantive, for it covers a large body of material, and it never loses sight of the significance of the issues and information presented. —Elvin Hatch, University of California, Santa Barbara

THE GARLAND ENCYCLOPEDIA OF WORLD MUSIC NEW

In a unique celebration of culture through the varied music of the world's peoples, this readily accessible 10-volume Encyclopedia explores the traditions, performance practices, and themes that bind each region's music together into a dynamic tapestry of art and daily life. Its multidisciplinary approach utilizes the latest methodologies and encompasses related fields such as folklore, dance, poetry, and religious rituals that enrich musical expression and define its social and cultural context and importance. Future volumes:

- South Asia
- Europe
- East Asia: China, Japan, and Korea
- The United States and Canada
- The Middle East
- Australia and the Pacific Islands
- Southeast Asia
- South America, Mexico, Central America, and the Caribbean
- The World's Music: General Perspectives and Reference Tools.

"Clearly long overdue! A great resource for many fields."

Among the Cree

Earle H. Waugh

1996 • Paper • $24.95
20 b&w, 8 colour photos
ISBN 0-88920-278-8

Now available in PAPER!

Vandersteene, a Flemish Oblate missionary inspired by the spirituality of the Cree, devoted his life to integrating Cree tradition and Catholicism, in a dramatic revision of Catholic ritualism. Earle Waugh traces Vandersteene's remarkable career: his life among the Cree, his intensive study of the Cree language and folkways, his status as a Cree medicine man, the evolution of his views on the relationship between aboriginal traditions and Roman Catholics, and his use of paintings, poetry and liturgical modifications to create a new religious reality.

New Titles from Mellen

AN ANTHOLOGY OF MYTHS, LEGENDS AND FOLKTALES FROM CAMEROON: Storytelling in Africa by Emmanuel Matateyou

Unlike other publications on folklore, this book illuminates for the reader the complex and rich performance contexts of the oral narratives in Sub-Saharan Africa. The narrator, the narrative pattern, the audience interaction, and details about the language, the setting, date and time of the performance of each tale help to recreate the atmosphere of live performance. Though translated into English, the author has made an effort to give to the oral narratives an indigenous flavor. The tales are divided into categories, such as origin stories, stories about men and women, trickster cycles. 272pp. 1997

BUSINESS, COMMERCE, AND SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY:

Beyond Agenda by Richard H. Reeves-Ellington and Adele Anderson

Provides an integrated anthropological perspective for business organizations in the areas of social responsibility, leadership alternatives, collaborative action research. It is directed primarily to professionals, scholars, and students concerned about doing business responsibly within globalizing but culturally fragmented contexts. It brings anthropological insights to the cultural and moral aspects of business, with the ultimate aim of enabling people to work more effectively toward a reintegration of business and society. 288pp. 1997

SPIRITS, SELVES, AND SUBJECTIVITY IN A JAPANESE NEW RELIGION

The Cultural Psychology of Belief in Sukyo Mahikari by Brian J. McVeigh

This volume is an examination of the beliefs and practices of Sukyo Mahikari; an investigation of how this movement, as a product of Japanese culture, shares a normative discourse with Japanese society; and an examination of how culture constructs mind/belief and an examination of ethnopyschological theories of self and spirit possession. 272pp. 1997

UNDERSTANDING GLOBALIZATION

The Social Consequences of Political, Economic, and Environmental Change
By Robert K. Schaeffer
"Robert Schaeffer has taken the entire world as his subject and has made it remarkably comprehensible. Schaeffer makes sense of everything from ethnic separation to global warming, from third world hunger to the inflation of stock prices, from trade deficits to the fall of communism. I can't think of a better guide to this new world."

RACE AND ETHNICITY IN LATIN AMERICA

Peter Wade

Wade examines changing perspectives on Black and Indian populations in Latin America, tracing similarities and differences in the way these peoples have been seen by academics and national elites. Beginning with a brief analysis of historical debates about the emergence of mixed societies in the colonial and republican era, Wade traces understandings of race and ethnicity from early functional approaches.

HUMAN RIGHTS, CULTURE AND CONTEXT

Edited by Richard Wilson

'[It] offers valuable insights into human rights discourse'

International Affairs
Drawing on case studies
from around the world,
this book documents how transnational human rights discourses are materialized, imposed,
resisted and transformed
in a variety of contexts.

NEW DIRECTIONS IN ECONOMIC ANTHROPOLOGY

Susana Narotzky

Narotzky provides a solid background to the main themes in economic anthropology: production,
distribution, consumption
and social reproduction.
She offers a critical approach to the central concepts and theoretical assumptions in economic anthropology, and
presents new perspectives
on issues currently transforming the field.

ANTHROPOLOGY AND CULTURAL STUDIES

Edited by Stephen Nugent & Cris Shore

Adopting an interdisciplinary approach, the contributors review the potential challenges and insights of cultural studies within their area of research. They also chart a potentially new agenda for anthropology in a shared terrain of globally interacting cultures and identities.

New from the Royal Anthropological Institute

- The JRAI includes in its September and December issues for 1997 a posthumous article by the late Alfred Gell, 'Exalting the king and obstructing the state: a political interpretation of royal ritual in Bastar District, Central India'; the Curl Prize Essay for 1996, Nigel Rapport's 'The "contrarities" of Israel'; Agnar Helgason and Gísli Pálsson on the moral landscape of modernist regimes, and Charles Lindholm on problems of postmodernism.
- The current Anthropology Today includes one of Nancy Lindisfarne's short stories (in English) from her collection Dancing in Damascus, recently published in Arabic; an article by a Japanese anthropologist, Kaoru Fukuda, on fox-hunting and pet-keeping in Britain; and Lanfranco Blanchetti-Revelli on the political economy of Philippine edible seaweed.
- The Institute now offers a free Internet service, ANTHROPOLOGICAL INDEX ONLINE, by means of which the titles of some 70,000 journal articles published between 1986 and 1993 may be searched, with current information for 1997 being added as this advertisement goes to press. Search on "<http://lucy.ukc.ac.uk/AIO.html>".
- The RAI is seeking to match a Challenge Grant of $100,000 offered by an anonymous donor to the Anthropologists' Fund for Urgent Anthropological Research. Applications for the fourth RAI/Goldsmiths Fellowship in Urgent Anthropology close on 1 December 1997.

The quarterly Journal of the Royal Anthropological Institute (incorporating Man) and the bimonthly Anthropology Today are both included in the Overseas Fellows' subscriptions of $83 (for 1998) or 'Junior Fellows' rate of $48 (for those under 30 on 1.1.98). 'Members' receive Anthropology Today for $25. Library subscriptions are $147 for JRAI, $49 for Anthropology Today. These rates are the same as those for 1997. You may pay by Visa, Access/MasterCard or American Express, or by a US$ or sterling check. Enquiries to RAI, 50 Fitzroy Street, London W1P 5HS. Tel. (+44) 171 387 0455, fax (+44) 171 383 4235, Email rai@cix.compulink.co.uk.
