ANTHROPOLOGY & EDUCATION QUARTERLY

Authenticity and Identity: Lessons from Indigenous Language Education

Edited by Rosemary Henze and Kathryn A. Davis

How do people define and negotiate notions of identity and authenticity in different contexts of indigenous language education? Anyone interested in the maintenance or renewal of heritage languages, language varieties, and cultural practices will want to read these cases on sparsely documented language revitalization efforts in Alaska, California, Hawai'i, and the Solomon Islands. Joshua Fishman provides final comments and reflections.

Authenticity and Identity (AEQ 30:1) is available for $12.00 (AAA members pay $9.00). For information on bulk orders (10 or more copies) or to order with VISA or MasterCard, call the AAA Book Orders Department at (703) 528-1902, ext. 3031.

READING INCA HISTORY

BY CATHERINE JULIEN

Did the Incas narrate a true reflection of their past, and did the Spaniards capture these narratives in a way that can be meaningfully reconstructed? In this provocative book, Catherine Julien argues that the Incas did indeed create detectable life histories and explains how to read them.

THE SHAPE OF INCA HISTORY

Narrative and Architecture in an Andean Empire

BY SUSAN A. NILES

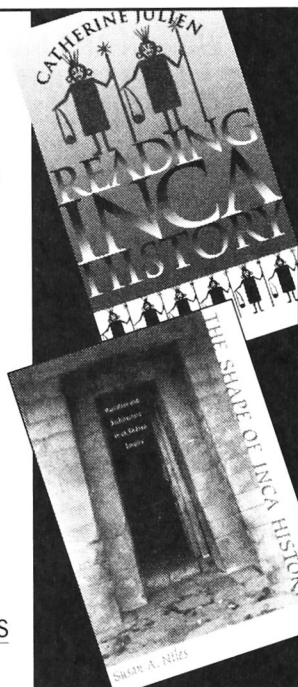

Focusing on the life of Huanya Capac, Susan Niles considers the ways in which the Inca concept of history informed their narratives, rituals, and architecture.

THE TRUTH NEVER STANDS IN THE WAY OF A GOOD STORY

JAN HAROLD BRUNVAND

"Urban legends cut through society in countless ways, and tracing their history is a daunting task that only an experienced scholar-adventurer like Jan Brunvand can handle. In his latest work, he guides the reader through many examples of how old forms of folklore leap with ease into the world of international travel and communication, and even into the realm of cyberspace." — Bill Ellis, president of the International Society for Contemporary Legend Research

Illus. Cloth, $22.95

WOMEN AND MUSIC IN CROSS-CULTURAL PERSPECTIVE

EDITED BY ELLEN KOSKOFF

"Essential to the serious study of women in music." — J. P. Ambrose, Choice

"A welcome addition to the ongoing debate concerning women and music. . . . The work is outstanding for the diverse approaches that are used and for its attempt to deal with concepts, ideologies, and methodologies as they relate to the study of women and music."

— Jacqueline Cogdell DjeDje, Ethnomusicology

Illus. Paper, $21.95

SEX, SEXUALITY, AND THE ANTHROPOLOGIST

EDITED BY FRAN MARKOWITZ
AND MICHAEL ASHKENAZI

"A balanced and rich collection. . . . The introduction makes a powerful, convincing argument, situating the book within the broader conversation about sexuality and anthropological practice which has emerged on all sides in recent years." — William Leap, coeditor of Out in the Field: Reflections of Gay and Lesbian Anthropologists

Raises critical questions about ethnographers' reflexivity, subjectivity, and detachment, confronting the challenge of a holistic approach to the anthropological enterprise.

Cloth, $34.95; Paper, $18.95

MUSIC AND GENDER

EDITED BY PIRKKO MOISALA AND
BEVERLEY DIAMOND

Foreword by Ellen Koskoff

"This stimulating collection explores the many ways gender, as a dynamic and fluid system, informs and transforms what we call music.

A fascinating collection not to be missed by anyone who cares about the future of music scholarship in this new century."

— Susan C. Cook, editor of Cecilia Reclaimed: Feminist Perspectives on Gender and Music

Illus. Cloth, $55.00; Paper, $24.95

SOCIAL ANTHROPOLOGY

Published for the European Association of Social Anthropologists

Editor:

Eduardo Archetti,
University of Oslo, Norway

Social Anthropology is an international journal that serves the needs of all scholars with an interest in social anthropology. Not only does it publish some of the best scholarship available, but it acts as a forum for debate about key issues and concepts in the field, challenging and re-examining the boundaries of the discipline.

Adaptation and Human Behavior

An Anthropological Perspective

2000. xv + 512 pages. Reference, index.

0-202-02043-6 Cloth $69.95 • 0-202-02044-4 Paper $34.95

Adaptation and Human Behavior is a collection of state-of-the-art studies in the rapidly growing field of human behavioral ecology. It commemorates the birth of this approach two decades ago with the publication of Chagnon and Irons's earlier edited perspective on the field, Evolutionary Biology and Human Social Behavior: An Anthropological Perspective. At the same time it redefines human behavioral ecology for a new generation of scholars and students.

0-202-30650-X Cloth $59.95 • 0-202-30649-6 Paper $29.95

First published in 1979, this classic study of the population of the Bushmen of the Kalahari Desert of Botswana is now reissued. Using methods that are simple and fully illustrated, the author presents empirical descriptions of fertility, mortality, and marriage patterns of the famous !Kung (now often called Zhun/Wasi) hunter-gatherers.

2000. ix + 232 pages. References, index.

0-202-02047-9 Cloth $43.95 • 0-202-02048-7 Paper $21.95

The evolutionary underpinnings of cannibalism as a survival strategy that has been practiced since prehistoric times and is still practiced are the subject of Lewis Petrinovich's new book. The Cannibal Within sets out to provide an evolutionary account of the propensity of human beings in extreme circumstances, to eat other human beings.

Anthropology

Theoretical Practice in Culture and Society

Edited by MICHAEL HERZFELD, Harvard University

"A wonderful book.... Anthropology breaks new ground in every generation. This sparkling survey does not tell you where anthropology has come from, it is a book about where anthropology has got to now, and where it is going.... A splendid publishing event for anthropology."

— Mary Douglas

"An intriguing and unusual book!... This is at once a collective and an individual, indeed idiosyncratic, work. Herzfeld is fencing master supreme; in drawing the works of colleagues close to himself, he also parries and diverts them. This is a sharp-witted and agile book that keep the conversations going 'til the end.... There should be more 'textbooks' like this."

— Marilyn Strathern

Anthropology: Theoretical Practice in Culture and Society builds on a collaborative project sponsored by UNESCO to provide an overview of social and cultural anthropology. Not a textbook in the ordinary sense, this work offers a vision of how anthropology—a discipline that operates through intimate knowledge of local societies—can increase understanding of society and culture even in this age of mass communication. In this examination of a sweeping range of topics, this book is not just about an academic discipline; it is about the theoretical as well as ethical commitments that have enabled anthropologists to play a leading role in the critique of racism and other forms of intolerance.

Cultural Diversity in the United States A Critical Reader

Edited by Ida Susser and Thomas C. Patterson
Hunter College (CUNY); University of California, Riverside

"Susser and Patterson have compiled a work we have long needed... this treasure will be indispensable for anyone interested in the politics of difference in contemporary U.S. culture."

~ EMILY MARTIN

Discover this outstanding new volume, in which some of anthropology's most notable scholars provide critical contexts for the exploration of diversity. The contributors to this landmark reader rethink diversity, identity politics, and multiculturalism, and provide fundamental tools for the analysis and understanding of critical political issues in the United States today. Important discussions include: re-examining the social and political history of the United States; establishing a framework for the understanding of inequality; and confronting simplistic images of diversity.

Sponsored by the American Anthropological Association, this reader contains over 20 essays, many newly commissioned.

Ethnohistory

[Edited by Neil L. Whitehead]

Ethnohistory emphasizes the joint use of documentary materials and ethnographic or archaeological data, as well as the combination of historical and anthropological approaches, in the study of social and cultural processes and history.

Nepantla: Views from South

[Edited by Alberto Moreiras, Walter D. Mignolo, and Gabriela Nouzeilles]

Nepantla: Views from South is committed to fostering innovative reflection at the intersections of the humanities and the social sciences and of post-area studies and cultural studies.

positions

[Edited by Tani E. Barlow]

Offering an altogether different approach to East Asia studies, positions employs theoretical and multidisciplinary methods in creating a provocative forum for vigorous debate.

Public Culture

[Edited by Elizabeth A. Povinelli]

For over ten years Public Culture has been publishing field-defining ethnographies and analyses of the cultural politics of globalization.

Social Science History

[Edited by Paula Baker, Joseph Alter, Werner Trosken, Katherine Lynch, and Elizabeth Faue]

Social Science History is a forum for social scientists interested in the study of change over time and for historians interested in the development of consciously theoretical approaches to historical explication.

ESSENTIAL BOOKS AND JOURNALS FROM SAGE

HANDBOOK OF QUALITATIVE RESEARCH SECOND EDITION

Edited by NORMAN K. DENZIN, University of Illinois, Urbana-Champaign & YVONNA S. LINCOLN, Texas A&M University
Norman K. Denzin and Yvonna S. Lincoln have compiled a landmark volume that represents the state of the art for the theory and practice of qualitative inquiry. This second edition is the roadmap to the territory that lies ahead for researchers in all disciplines. This substantially revised second edition features: six new chapter topics including: queer theory, performance ethnography, testimonios, focus groups in feminist research, applied ethnography, and anthropological poetics. Fifteen new chapters written by new contributors, all leading figures in their fields. Every chapter in the book has been thoroughly revised and updated to meet the needs of researchers today. The Handbook of Qualitative Research is the essential text for the library of any scholar interested in the art and science of research and it will quickly establish itself as a classic.

HANDBOOK OF ETHNOGRAPHY

Edited by PAUL ATKINSON, AMANDA COFFEY and SARA DELAMONT, all at Cardiff University, UK, and JOHN LOFLAND & LYN H. LOFLAND, both at University of California, Davis

'A marvelous achievement! The Handbook has all the marks of a winner - compelling writing, comprehensive coverage and very useful discussions. A real benchmark for ethnography. It will set the background for debate and point to new directions for years to come. My graduate students will love it'

- Jaber F. Gubrium,
University of Florida, Gainesville

The Handbook of Ethnography compiles invaluable, original, critical essays on ethnographic work, earning it a place on everyone's must-have bookshelf

- Virginia Olesen,
University of California, San Francisco

This Handbook provides an unparalleled, critical guide to the principles and practice of ethnography. The volume is organized into three sections. The first systematically locates ethnography firmly in its relevant historical and intellectual contexts. The roots of ethnography are pinpointed and the pattern of its development is demonstrated. The second section examines the contribution of ethnography to major fields of substantive research. The impact and strengths and weaknesses of ethnographic method are dealt with authoritatively and accessibly. The third section moves on to examine key debates and issues in ethnography, from the conduct of research through to contemporary arguments. The result is a landmark work in the field, which draws on the expertise of an internationally renowned group of inter-disciplinary scholars. It will quickly establish itself as the ethnographer's bible.

Transforming Academia

Challenges and Opportunities for an Engaged Anthropology

Linda G. Basch, Lucie Wood Saunders, Jagna Wojcika Sharff, and James Peacock, eds.

Transforming Academia is an ethnography of higher education by authors located at the highest levels of academic administration and teaching. It addresses the structural and cultural transformations presently challenging academia, and identifies ways anthropologists, using the tools of the discipline, can bring anthropological analyses and perspectives to the discourse of higher education. It also urges, and provides several examples of how, anthropologists can become part of the solution in their own institutions.

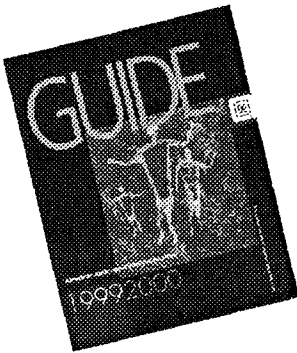

"A first-rate example of an engaged anthropology that speaks not just to anthropologists but to others who are concerned about the current state of higher education." —Louise Lamphere

"[This book] will surely be among the published works that help us to understand and respond to the kind of cultural complexity and diversity that characterize the global society of our times." —Johnnetta Cole

"Transforming Academia's authors include a star-studded cast of anthropologists with experience at the highest levels of academic administration, and throughout academia in a wide variety of institutions and positions." —Jane Hill

Transforming Academia (ISBN 0-913167-92-4) is now selling for $12.50 to AAA members ($15.00 for nonmembers). There is a discount on orders of 10 or more copies. MasterCard and VISA accepted. Prepayment is required for all orders. Virginia residents add 4.5% sales tax.

Looking for Anthropologists?

Find them in the new AAA Guide and at www.aaanet.org!

The 1999-2000 AAA Guide is now available!

The AAA Guide is the premier information resource for anthropology in the United States and Canada. It includes a directory of AAA members and a listing of hundreds of US and foreign anthropology departments.

The 620-page AAA Guide is available to AAA members for $40 ($75 for nonmembers). To order your copy of the AAA Guide for delivery in October, contact AAA Member Services.

New this year . . . Debuting alongside the latest edition of the AAA Guide is the AAA Resource Center—your online guide to the anthropological community! It contains the 543 anthropology departments that were compiled for publication in the AAA 1999-2000 Guide—in an easy-to-use, searchable listing of anthropology programs, academic departments, museums, research firms, and government agencies.

The new AAA Resource Center also provides, exclusively for members and purchasers of the AAA Guide, access to individual faculty of anthropological programs, searchable by both areas of specialization and location.

Note that the electronic guide is available for free on www.aaanet.org for a limited time only—until January 1, 2000! In the meantime, the AAA offers you this “review copy”—we urge you to explore this valuable new service and give us your feedback.

CORI Publications

Sponsored by the Committee on Refugee Issues (CORI) of the General Anthropology Division of AAA, this series is devoted to the articulation of the relationship between anthropological knowledge and refugee issues and to the timely presentation of the most current work in the field. Articles address such issues as sociocultural change, transnationalism, acculturation, and contributions to the current development of anthropological theory and method. Other articles concern practical issues of governmental policy, voluntary and mutual assistance organizations, adaptation, health education, and women's rights. The global scope of the volumes encompasses studies of refugees in overseas detention centers and resettlement communities within the United States, Germany, Zimbabwe, Honduras, Poland, Hungary, Egypt, Canada, Tanzania, Zambia, and Brazil. Each volume contains articles appropriate for human service providers, researchers in various disciplines, and classroom use.

Now you will find Harcourt Brace's distinguished innovation, leadership and support under a different name...Harcourt College Publishers

Harcourt Anthropology and Archaeology 2001

Harcourt College Publishers is the proud publisher of William A. Haviland's Anthropology, 9/e and Cultural Anthropology, 9/e, and the Spindler Case Study Series. The Spindler Series includes classics such as Richard Lee's The Dobe Ju'hoansi, 2/e and Napoleon Chagnon's Yanomamö, 5/e as well as new titles like Mary Kay Duffie's Through the Eye of the Needle: A Maori Elder Remembers, and Mariko Fujita and Toshiyuki Sano's Life in Riverfront: A Middle-Western Town Seen Through Japanese Eyes. Along with this rich offering of traditional texts and case studies are the extensive resources found listed on the HARCOURT ANTHROPOLOGY/ARCHAEOLOGY WEBSITE.

The HARCOURT ANTHROPOLOGY/ARCHAEOLOGY WEBSITE: (www.harcourtcollege.com/anthro) includes "In the News" which highlights top anthropology news stories.

The Anthropology Career Guide helps students determine if an anthropology major is right for them and gives information about career options, while the Multimedia Products section includes information about the Yanomamö CD-ROM and a listing of our video selections. "Anthropology in Action" is dedicated to highlighting valued online resources that illustrate practical applications in anthropology including annotated links to anthropology in business, forensic anthropology, and medical anthropology to name a few.

"The Field Store" is a place to browse through Harcourt's extensive Spindler Case Studies Series and the newer Quilter Archaeology Case Studies Series. Interested in a certain area of the world? The Anthropology Case Studies Series lists all of the cases by region.

Please visit us at the Harcourt College Publishers booth for a complete listing of our titles. For a complimentary examination copy of any Harcourt titles, you may also visit us online at the HARCOURT ANTHROPOLOGY/ARCHAEOLOGY WEBSITE, complete our online request form at www.harcourtexamcopy.com, or call customer service at 800-237-2665.
