Smoking Ban

On November 19, 1989, the Board of Directors adopted a motion requesting that persons in attendance refrain from smoking at all sessions and meetings. We ask those who attend this meeting to comply with this motion. In working toward a goal of a smoke-free convention, we also ask that people only smoke outdoors, and particularly not to smoke in common areas, such as hallways, exhibit halls, and foyers near the meeting room.

Accessibility

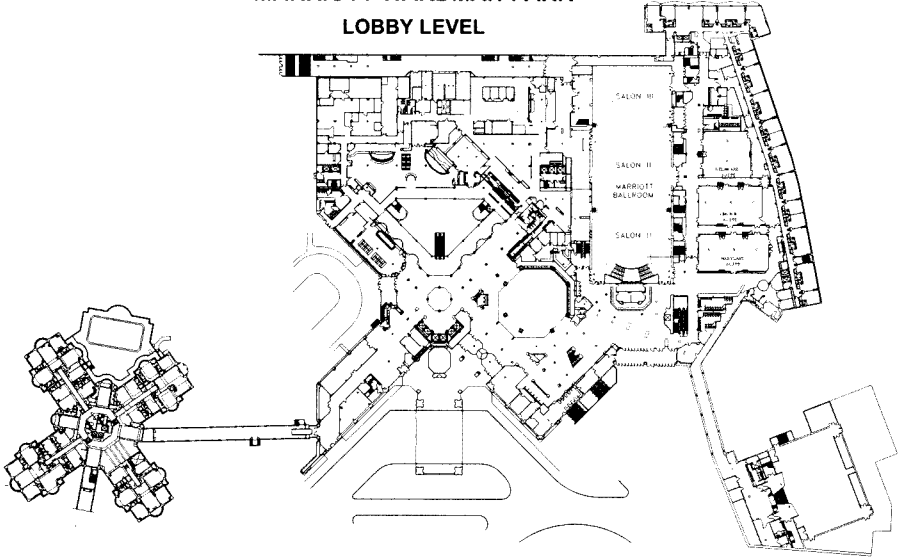

Space for disabled persons is reserved at the back of each meeting room. The Association requests that this space be left available for those persons requiring it.

Topic Index

The following indexes scientific sessions by general topic. It is not an index of individual papers but a guide to sessions treating these topics. It should also be noted that this index is largely compiled from key words supplied by authors. This accounts for some inconsistencies in coverage.

THE WORLD AHEAD

An Anthropologist Anticipates the Future

Margaret Mead, edited and with an introduction and commentaries by Robert B. Textor

[Mead] sought to clarify images of the future as they were current and to articulate images that would be preferable... Textor's commentaries connect these papers and articles in a way that establishes 'the future' as a proper central focus in anthropology..."

Against Preemptive War

a special issue of positions
volume 13, number 1

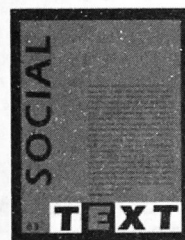

Gathering material from politically active scholars, artists, and authors from Europe, Asia, and North America, this issue reflects on the likely fallout from the U.S. strategy of preemption—striking in advance of any realized threat. Tani Barlow, Yukiko Hanawa, Thomas LaMarre, and Donald Lowe, special issue editors

Racial Americana

a special issue of SAQ
volume 104, number 3

Imagining America's racist future, the diverse contributors to this special issue offer their conceptualizations of race today, discuss how racial ideology has changed through the years, and explain its continuing ability to morph according to geopolitical, cultural, and economic strictures. John L. Jackson Jr., special issue editor

Surveillance

a special issue of Social Text
#83 (volume 23, number 2)

This special issue explores the impact that surveillance, in its domestic and international forms, has on labor, technology, and privacy. Additional themes include historical modes of surveillance, processes of legitimation, and cultural representations of surveillance.

Richard Maxwell, special issue editor

An Inca Account of the Conquest of Peru

Narrated by Diego de Castro Titu Cusi Yupanqui (1570)
Translated, introduced, and annotated by Ralph Bauer

"This translation, available for the first time in its entirety, takes a critical look at how the Incan society challenged the Spanish conquest."

—Colorado Endowment for the Humanities 2005
Publication Prize Committee

Stone Houses and Earth Lords

Maya Religion in the Cave Context

Edited by Keith M. Prufer & James E. Brady

The first volume dedicated to the use of caves in the Maya Lowlands, with 24 contributions that comprise the best current scholarship in this fast-growing area of research and that yield key insights into Maya ritual and cosmology.

Landscapes in India

Forms and Meanings

By Amita Sinha

Sinha shows how to read landscapes like languages, as arrangements of symbols that reveal cultural values. She introduces archetypal forms in South Asian landscapes, tracing the meaning of these forms as manifested in Indic mythology and literature. Illustrated.

The Terminal Classic in the Maya Lowlands

Collapse, Transition, and Transformation

Edited by Arthur A. Demarest, Prudence M. Rice, & Don S. Rice
A Choice 2004 Outstanding Academic Title, new in paperback!

"[A] landmark with 23 contributions by a wide range of researchers working throughout the Maya lowlands. Maya archaeologists are fortunate to have this range of information and synthesis about the Terminal Classic, best known as the time of the Maya collapse, at their disposal." —Antiquity

Histories of Infamy

Francisco López de Gómara and the Ethics of Spanish Imperialism

By Cristian A. Roa de la Carrera

Translated by Scott Sessions

"In an eloquent and thorough exegesis, Roa de la Carrera reveals how and why López de Gómara, having written the best of all possible books in exaltation of Spanish imperialism, nevertheless failed to convince the readers of his time."

—Susan Schroeder, Tulane University

"I Won't Stay Indian, I'll Keep Studying"

Race, Place, and Discrimination in a Costa Rican High School

By Karen Stocker

This outstanding new study shows how indigenous high school students in Costa Rica reacted to and resisted racist messages conveyed by the overt and hidden curricula of their school and the dominant ideology of a Costa Rican town.

Reshaping New Spain

Government and Private Interests in the Colonial Bureaucracy, 1535–1550

By Ethelia Ruiz Medrano

JOURNALS from Blackwell Publishing

4 issues per year, special (5th) issue annually from 2006!

The Journal of the Royal Anthropological Institute

Incorporating MAN

Published on behalf of the Royal Anthropological Institute

Editor: GLENN BOWMAN

The Journal of the Royal Anthropological Institute is the principal journal of the oldest anthropological organization in the world. It has attracted and inspired some of the world's greatest thinkers. International in scope, it presents accessible papers aimed at a broad anthropological readership. The Journal provides an important forum for "anthropology as a whole", embracing social anthropology, archaeology, biological anthropology and the study of material culture. It is also acclaimed for its extensive book review section. From 2006, a special (fifth) issue will appear annually. The special issue series will be guest-edited, and will address different themes on anthropology from year to year.

Anthropology Today

Also Published on behalf of the Royal Anthropological Institute

Editor: GUSTAAF HOUTMAN

Anthropology Today is a bimonthly publication which aims to provide a forum for the application of anthropological analysis to public and topical issues, while reflecting the breadth of interests within the discipline of anthropology. It is also committed to promoting debate at the interface between anthropology and areas of applied knowledge such as education, medicine and development; as well as that between anthropology and other academic disciplines.
