▲ Moche Finesline Painting From San José de Moro

By Donna McClelland, Donald McClelland, and Christopher B. Donnan

By discussing and illustrating more than 200 painted vessels from San José de Moro, this full-color volume provides insights about a community of ancient Peruvian potters who shared a distinctive painting style and left a fascinating record of their achievement.

▲ Machu Picchu: Exploring an Ancient Sacred Center

By Johan Reinhard

Machu Picchu is one of the world's most famous archaeological sites, yet it remains a mystery. Even the most basic questions have long remained unanswered: What was its meaning and why was it built in such a difficult location? In this book Reinhard examines Machu Picchu from the perspectives of sacred landscape and archaeoastronomy. The new edition is completely redesigned and in full color.

▲ The Archaeology of Ritual

Edited by Evangelos Kyriakidis

This book is the fruit of the third Cotsen Advanced Seminar conducted at UCLA. A wide spectrum of scholars, historians, art historians, anthropologists, students of performance, students of religion, archaeologists, cognitive scientists, and linguists were all asked to think and comment on how ritual can be traced in archaeology and which ways ritual research can go in that discipline.

PEARSON

New from Duke University Press

The Perils of Academic Freedom

a special issue of Social Text (number 90)

Malini Johar Schueller and Ashley Dawson, special issue editors

This special issue, which features an article by Ward Churchill, examines the increasingly uneasy relationship between academia, teaching, and free speech as well as the threats to academic freedom presented by the war on terror. Read the introduction for free at socialtext.dukejournals.org/content/vol25/issue1_90.

The Ends of War

a special issue of Social Text (number 91)

Patrick Deer, special issue editor

Examining the self-perpetuating nature of postmodern war and war culture, contributors examine the instrumental nature of war discourse as a political force and challenge its vision of endless warfare. Read the introduction for free at socialtext.dukejournals.org/content/vol25/issue2_91.

DISASTROUS

CONSEQUENCES

Disastrous Consequences

a special issue of SAQ (volume 106, number 4)

Eric Cazdyn, special issue editor

This special issue examines the political and social problems that underlie and exacerbate the effects of disasters, whether they follow from things going horribly wrong or are the predictable results of things going according to plan. Read the introduction for free at saq.dukejournals.org/content/vol106/issue4.

After Sex? On Writing since Queer Theory

a special issue of SAQ (volume 106, number 3)

Andrew Parker and Janet Halley, special issue editors

Comprising nineteen personal essays by prominent scholars in queer theory, this special issue asks if writing can be regarded as queer if it's not explicitly about sexuality. Read the introduction for free at saq.dukejournals.org/content/vol106/issue3.

Check out these issues at booths 202, 204, and 206!

To order, please call 888-651-0122 or 919-688-5134, or e-mail subscriptions@dukeupress.edu. dukejournals.org

Public Culture

Cultures of Democracy

a special issue of Public Culture
volume 19, number 1
Dilip Parameshwar Gaonkar,
special issue editor

The contributors to this special issue propose that democratic strategies and practices pursued by different countries, and their relative successes, are deeply affected by the countries' cultures, histories, and reception of, or resistance to, modernity. Read the introduction for free at publicculture.dukejournals.org/content/vol19/issue1.

Cultural Anthropology

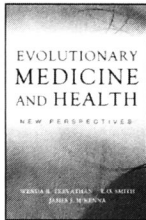

A Perspective on the Human Condition

Seventh Edition

EMILY A. SCHULTZ and
ROBERT H. LAVENDA

This highly acclaimed text incorporates cutting-edge perspectives to show students how people shape their cultural traditions. Extensively revised, the seventh edition features a questioning approach; full color throughout; an inviting new page design; and new material on gender and on race and human evolution.

February 2008 456 pp.; 315 color illus. & photos paper

Evolutionary Medicine and Health

New Perspectives

WENDA R. TREVATHAN, E. O. SMITH, and JAMES J. MCKENNA

Featuring twenty-three original essays from preeminent scholars, this book examines the relevance of human evolution to a wide range of contemporary health problems.

2007 576 pp.; 75 illus. paper

Sacred Realms

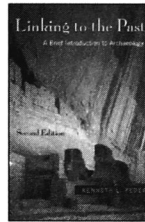

Readings in the Anthropology of Religion

Second Edition

RICHARD WARMS, JAMES GARBER, and R. JON MCGEE

This comprehensive introduction enables students to analyze religion and to consider its important role in world affairs.

February 2008 528 pp.; 16 illus. paper

Linking to the Past

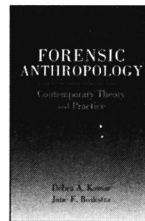

A Brief Introduction to Archaeology

Second Edition

KENNETH L. FEDER

This text offers an engaging introduction to the methods that archaeologists use to reveal the human past. Reorganized to take a more linear approach, the second edition also covers current technology and theory.

November 2007 496 pp.; 175 illus. paper

Forensic Anthropology

Contemporary Theory and Practice

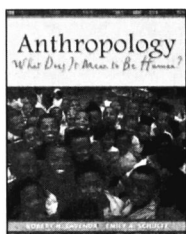

DEBRA A. KOMAR and JANE E. BUIKSTRA

The first comprehensive text in the field, this unique work examines the medical, legal, and ethical issues raised by forensic anthropology, current forensic methods, and bio-history.

2007 400 pp.; 94 illus. cloth

Anthropology

What Does It Mean to Be Human?
ROBERT H. LAVENDA and
EMILY A. SCHULTZ

"The authors are right on target with their calls for a 'less is more' approach to a four-field introductory text. We need to make the anthropological perspective both unique and relevant, and this volume meets that requirement."—Thomas Offit, Baylor University

2007 560 pp., 279 illus. paper

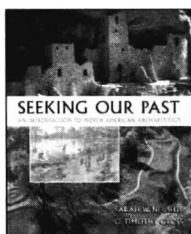

The State of the Native Nations

Conditions under U.S. Policies of Self-Determination
THE HARVARD PROJECT ON AMERICAN INDIAN ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

"Bursting with empirical data not readily available, and brimming with practical and scholarly insights, this book is a must-read for anyone interested in the current situation of America's senior nations—its First Nations."—David Wilkins, University of Minnesota

2007 448 pp., 75 illus. & 3 maps
paper / cloth

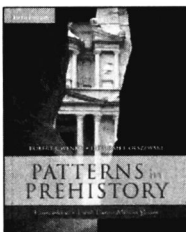

Seeking Our Past

An Introduction to North American Archaeology
Includes CD-ROM
SARAH W. NEUSIUS and
G. TIMOTHY GROSS

"Finally! A North American archaeology text that not only provides a solid culture history, but also puts North American archaeology into a social and political context that students can understand and use."—Larry J. Zimmerman, Indiana University-Purdue University, Indianapolis

2006 720 pp., 343 illus. & maps paper / cloth

Patterns in Prehistory

Humankind's First Three Million Years
Fifth Edition

ROBERT J. WENKE and
DEBORAH I. OLSZEWSKI

"Patterns in Prehistory does a better job of covering the whole scope of archaeological achievement than any other book on the market."—Paul Zimansky, Boston University

2006 640 pp., 256 illus. paper

SENSIBLE OBJECTS

Colonialism, Museums and Material Culture

Edited by Elizabeth Edwards, Chris Gosden and Ruth Phillips

Anthropologists of the senses have long argued that cultures differ in their sensory registers. This volume applies this idea to material culture and the social practices that endow objects with meanings in both colonial and post-colonial relationships.
