The Archaeology of Ritual
EDITED BY EVANGELOS KYRIAKIDIS
COTSEN ADVANCED SEMINARS 3 • $70 CLOTH, $40 PAPER

This book is the fruit of the third Cotsen Advanced Seminar conducted at the Cotsen Institute of Archaeology at UCLA. A wide spectrum of scholars, historians, art historians, anthropologists, students of performance and of religion, archaeologists, cognitive scientists, and linguists were all asked to think and comment on how ritual can be traced in archaeology and on possible directions for ritual research in the discipline. The outcome is a collection of papers that is thought provoking, often controversial, but always of extremely high quality.

Chavin: Art, Architecture, and Culture
EDITED BY WILLIAM J CONKLIN AND JEFFREY QUILTER
MONOGRAPH 61 • 400 PAGES • $80 CLOTH, $50 PAPER

"Chavin—the once-touted mother culture of all Andean civilization—is refreshingly scrutinized in this penetrating volume of new data, analysis and interpretation that will influence subsequent inquiry for decades to come. Over ten chapter authors bring individual expertise in archaeology, art, and ethnohistory together to new research addressing the fundamental issues of what was Chavin and how it originated. Marvelously illustrated, this is a true gem in Andean studies." — Michael E. Moseley, Professor of Anthropology, University of Florida

Andean Civilization: A Tribute to Michael E. Moseley
EDITED BY JOYCE MARCUS AND PATRICK RYAN WILLIAMS
MONOGRAPH 63 • AVAILABLE FALL 2008
ISBN: 978-1-931745-54-3 (CLOTH), 978-1-931745-40-6 (PAPER)

This volume brings together exciting new field data by more than two dozen Andean scholars who came together to honor a friend, colleague, and mentor. These new studies cover the enormous temporal span of Moseley's own work from the preceramic era to the Tiwanaku and Moche states to the Inka empire. The papers in this book demonstrate the vibrant range of exciting new work by his former students and collaborators in fieldwork.

Being Innu takes an unvarnished look at life in the village of Sheshatshiu, in the Canadian province of Labrador. Six savvy, gutsy young people talk about addiction, suicide, lack of jobs, and hopelessness in this portrait of a community in crisis.

On the Other Side follows a group of Jamaican migrant workers through the highs and lows of the tobacco season, where they must make the best of a life far from home and cope with the often unpredictable nature of farm work.

Through the Negev tells through interwoven first-person accounts by Sudanese women and children who have made the journey by walking from Egypt to Israel. Through the Negev encapsulates these refugees’ struggle for home and safety.

Founded in 1968 by independent filmmakers whose collaborations reflect a lifetime of engagement and respect for their subjects, DER fosters cross-cultural understanding through educational video and film. We produce, distribute and promote quality ethnographic and documentary films from around the world.

New from Duke University Press

Urban Margins: Envisioning the Contemporary Global South
a special issue of Social Text (number 95)
Kamran Asdar Ali and Martina Rieker, special issue editors

Expanding on urban studies’ frequent focus on megacities, this special issue addresses various forms of marginality in small and medium-size towns. Read the introduction for free at socialtext.dukejournals.org/content/vol26/issue2_95.

Constructing the Maya: Ethnicity, State Formation, and Material Culture in Yucatán, Chiapas, and Guatemala
a special issue of Ethnohistory (volume 55, number 4)
Paul K. Eiss, special issue editor

A significant contribution to the history and anthropology of the Maya, this special issue explores the ethnic dimensions of state formation as well as state practice in indigenous regions. Read the introduction for free at ethnohistory.dukejournals.org/content/vol55/issue4.

Settler Colonialism
a special issue of SAQ (volume 107, number 4)
Alyosha Goldstein and Alex Lubin, special issue editors

Revisiting the history of settler colonialism in the United States, South Africa, Eritrea, and Palestine/Israel, this special issue examines diverse historical, geographical, and economic instances of settler colonialism. Read the introduction for free at saq.dukejournals.org/content/vol107/issue4.

Queer/Migration
a special issue of GLQ (volume 14, numbers 2 and 3)
Eithne Luibhéid, special issue editor

This special double issue argues that sexuality scholarship must rethink the role of migration in constructing heterogeneous sexual identities, communities, politics, and practices. Read the introduction for free at glq.dukejournals.org/content/vol14/issue2-3.

Check out these issues at booths 511, 513, and 515!

Transition: An International Review

EDITED BY F. ABIOLA IRELE AND TOMMIE SHELBY—Transition is an international review of politics, culture, and ethnicity. Its writers fill the magazine’s pages with unusual dispatches, unforgettable memoirs, unorthodox polemics, unlikely conversations, and unsurpassed original fiction. Transition tells complicated stories with elegant prose and beautiful images.

Race/Ethnicity: Multidisciplinary Global Contexts

EDITED BY JOHN A. POWELL AND MAC A. STEWART—Race/Ethnicity offers a critical intervention in contemporary thinking on race and ethnicity by recognizing and responding to shared challenges. Through a multidisciplinary approach and a willingness simultaneously to engage theory, practice, and other forms of knowledge, the journal offers new ways to exchange vital information.

The Global South

EDITED BY ADETAYO ALABI—The Global South is an interdisciplinary journal that focuses on how world literatures and cultures respond to globalization. Authors, writers, and critics contribute essays on a variety of issues under the umbrella of globalization.

Indiana Journal of Global Legal Studies

EDITED BY HANNAH BUXBAUM, JOST DELBRÜCK, AND CHRISTIANA OCHOA—By focusing directly on globalization as involving not only a shift in the scale of law but also the dynamics of domestic legal processes, the Indiana Journal of Global Legal Studies is instrumental in creating new analytical frameworks that will enhance understanding of the nature of law and society in the current global era.

FROM POVERTY TO POWER argues that to break the cycle of poverty and inequality and to give poor people power over their own destinies a radical redistribution of power, opportunities, and assets is required. The two driving forces behind such a transformation are active citizens and effective states.

There is now an added urgency beyond the moral case for tackling poverty and inequality. We need to build a secure, fair, and sustainable world before climate change makes it impossible. This book argues that there is still time, provided leaders, organizations, and individuals act. Starting today...

"Read it so you can understand why development requires not just effective governments, but also active citizens, not just good policies, but also good politics, not just local action, but global cooperation as well." Dini Rodrik, John F. Kennedy School of Government, Harvard University

"Masterfully put in one place the tools we have all been waiting for: a strong analysis of how the forces of globalization and power are affecting the world’s poor, inspirational examples of how effective states and enlightened citizens are shaping a more sustainable society in parts of the world, and a roadmap showing the rest of us to get on the path to a better world." Kevin P. Gallagher, Boston University

Why Men Die First
How to Lengthen Your Lifespan
Marianne J. Legato

It's a universal fact that men die before women. But the causes of this have long remained unexplored. In this trailblazing book, Dr. Marianne Legato—an expert in gender specific health—examines the reasons behind men's fragility and explains what they need to do to live longer. A bestselling author and Professor of Medicine at Columbia University, Dr. Legato shows how the forces of culture and biology conspire against male mortality. Drawing on the latest research and narrated through the lives of her patients, she delves into problems that both men and women care about—from why the male fetus is at greater risk, to why boys have a hard time adjusting to school, to how elevated levels of the stress hormone cortisol make men more prone to aggression and why they are more likely to die from cardiac arrest or cancer and even depression.

Next Exit Magic Kingdom
Florida Accidentally
Rory MacLean

Abandoning himself to the winds of chance, MacLean stumbles across an alternative Florida, and his final destination is Disney's Magic Kingdom where Mickey Mouse can be best man at your Fairy Tale Wedding. Next Exit Magic Kingdom shatters every stereotypical image you have ever associated with Florida. Entertaining and warm, this is a story of the places that chance can take you to and a portrait of the many sides of Florida, where dreams can be made as quickly as they are broken.

Don Brenneis, Joseph Dumit, Susan Harding, Louise Lamphere, George Marcus, Emily Martin, Katherine McCaffrey, Frances Mascia-Lees, Mary Murrell, Lorna Rhodes, Dan Segal, Ida Susser, and Will Thomson announce a new journal for cultural anthropology

Anthropology Now

Anthropology Now offers the best of new and innovative research by anthropologists in a venue that combines the literary and visual qualities of a magazine. This exciting new journal makes anthropological research available to a wide readership, including students, general readers, and scholars in other disciplines and will be a vital publication for university and departmental libraries for use in teaching, research, and student papers.

"Anthropology Now offers a critical perspective on contemporary issues that is available nowhere else."
—Richard Handler, University of Virginia

"The field of anthropology has changed tremendously since the days of Margaret Mead. Anthropology Now will bring some of this surprising and an illuminating work into the public domain."
—Sherry Ortner, UCLA

Come by booth #408 to pick up your complimentary copy of our inaugural issue and get an invitation to our Anthropology Now launch event on Saturday, November 22 where the editors will be discussing both their work and vision for the journal.

Current Anthropology
Mark Aldenderfer, Editor
Sponsored by The Wenner-Gren Foundation for Anthropological Research

Current Anthropology is a transnational journal devoted to research on humankind, encompassing the full range of anthropological scholarship on human cultures and on the human and other primate species. Communicating across the subfields, the journal features papers in a wide variety of areas, including social, cultural, and physical anthropology as well as ethnology and ethnohistory, archaeology and prehistory, folklore, and linguistics.

Critical Inquiry
Presents articles by eminent critics, scholars, and artists on a wide variety of issues central to contemporary criticism and culture.

Signs
Publishes pathbreaking articles, review essays, comparative perspectives, and retrospectives of interdisciplinary interest addressing gender, race, culture, class, nation, and sexuality.

History of Religions
Strives to publish scholarship that reflects engagement with particular traditions, places, and times and yet also speaks to broader methodological and/or theoretical issues in the study of religion.

Journal of Consumer Research
Publishes empirical, theoretical, and methodological scholarly research that describes and explains consumer behavior.
