Quantification in Cultural Anthropology

AN INTRODUCTION TO RESEARCH DESIGN. Allen W. Johnson. A set of principles for improving anthropological method—how should I organize my fieldwork, what should I look for, how should I measure what I find, and why is it important? Accompanied by notes on the most useful literature and by suggestions drawn from the best recent fieldwork.

Universals of Human Language

VOL. I, METHOD AND THEORY; VOL. II, PHONOLOGY; VOL. III, WORD STRUCTURE; VOL. IV, SYNTAX. Edited by Joseph H. Greenberg. Associate Editors, Charles A. Ferguson & Edith A. Moravcsik. Forty-nine papers (33 never before published) provide a synthesis of virtually all major aspects of current inquiry. Vol. I, $15.00; Vol. II, $25.00; Vol. III, $25.00; Vol. IV, $24.00

Race and Class in Colonial Oaxaca

John K. Chance. A study of changing social stratification in the city of Oaxaca, focusing on the development and function of the sistema de castas—the system of ranked ethnic statuses, encoded in Spanish law, that emerged in response to the growth of the New World's racially mixed population. $14.00

Holistic Thought in Social Science

D. C. Phillips. "Clearly and nontechnically presents . . . an analysis of the debate, back to the late 19th-century neo-Hegelianism, connecting the issue to several social science fields. . . . Its treatment of holism in psychology, anthropology, sociology, and political science is illuminating."—Choice. $8.50

CULTURAL ANTHROPOLOGY

Second Edition

Conrad Phillip Kottak, University of Michigan

Conrad Kottak's Cultural Anthropology was the first introductory text to maintain a consistent evolutionary/ecological perspective throughout, showing the universality of anthropological concepts. It was also the text that gave unprecedented attention to the anthropological issues with greatest meaning to students. These groundbreaking features, along with its great readability, made Cultural Anthropology one of the most popular introductory paperbacks published. The new edition enhances and improves on this solid base to keep pace with contemporary student interest and recent scholarship, with new chapters and material on such topics as sex roles, primate behavior and sociobiology, the relationship between "race" and "intelligence," and drug addict subculture.

MODERN CULTURAL ANTHROPOLOGY: An Introduction

Third Edition

Phillip K. Bock, University of New Mexico

Using a cognitive approach throughout, Professor Bock deals with language, social structure, technology, and ideology as analogous systems of categories and plans. These paired concepts (how people categorize their experiences, and how they respond to these experiences with learned plans for action) are used throughout the book to demonstrate how cultures develop, are maintained, and change. Within this systematic framework, the new edition, in paper for the first time, has been thoroughly revised and updated for today's anthropology students: it's more concise, more lucid, and features new material on such contemporary topics as sociobiology, intracultural variability, ethnic groups, and social classes.

Order Codes: 32218, 32303 (I.M.)

PHYSICAL ANTHROPOLOGY AND ARCHEOLOGY

Second Edition

Clifford J. Jolly, New York University, and Fred Plog, Arizona State University

This thoroughly revised, expanded, even more lucid edition of a leading paperback continues to stress the close relationship between biological and cultural evolution, and present human structure, behavior, and culture as one story with recurrent major themes — evolution, change and stability, adaptation, diversification, and extinction. This edition is more oriented toward physical anthropology (with no sacrifice of archeological coverage), and includes much exciting new material on such topics as race, the evolution of archaic Homo sapiens and the Neanderthals, and genetics.

NEIGHBORS

Living the Revolution/An Oral History of Contemporary Cuba

Oscar Lewis, Ruth M. Lewis, and Susan M. Rigdon

This third and final volume based on the Lewises' research in Cuba takes a look at the family situation in Cuba and how the Revolution has influenced the attitudes of different kinds of people toward each other. The stories reveal in subtle and sometimes startling ways how attitudes born of class, race, geography, and politics affect the most intimate thoughts and actions of persons under the new Cuban system. ". . .of value not only to all students of Cuban culture but to all scholars studying social change." — America. $15.00

THE ECOLOGY OF SOCIAL BOUNDARIES

Agta Foragers of the Philippines

Jean Treloggen Peterson

An in-depth analysis of the relations of hunters to neighboring peoples and one of few treatments of ethnicity in a nonurban context, this volume examines the Agta hunter-gathers and their relationship with neighboring Filipino peasants. $8.95

NEW PAPERBACKS

EVOLUTION AND ECOLOGY

Essays on Social Transformation

Julian H. Steward

Edited by Jane C. Steward and Robert F. Murphy

"These essays reinforce our conception of Steward's principal theoretical interests and contributions—causal connections in cultural evolution, and the relationships among environment, subsistence activities, and social organization. Every four-year college and university will want to acquire it." — Choice. $5.95

CONTEMPORARY CHANGE IN TRADITIONAL COMMUNITIES OF MEXICO AND PERU

Charles J. Erasmus, Solomon Miller, and Louis C. Faron. Foreword by Julian H. Steward

An investigation of the effects of the modern industrial world culture in native societies of Latin America. The paperback edition on the tribal Yaqui and Mayo in northwest Mexico, the haciendas in the Chancay Valley of central Peru, and the tenant farmers in northern Peru makes evidence of cross-cultural regularities and differences in modernization accessible to a larger audience. $4.95
