TSQ Transgender Studies Quarterly

We're changing gender.

Taking “transgender” as a broad starting point for interdisciplinary critical and social analysis, TSQ seeks to explore the meaning and function of gender, sex, sexuality, embodiment, and identity in ways that have not yet been adequately addressed by previous feminist and queer scholarship.

* Postposttranssexual: Key Concepts for a Twenty-First-Century Transgender Studies (1:1/2)

Comprising eighty-six short keyword essays, the inaugural issue of TSQ assesses where transgender studies is now and where it is going. $18

* Decolonizing the Transgender Imaginary (1:3)

This issue asks what kinds of politics might emerge from challenging the assumption that biological sex—or the categories “man” and “woman”—is stable and self-evident across time, space, and culture. $12

* Trans Cultural Production* (1:4)

This issue seeks to analyze the current state, history, and significance of expressive forms of cultural production as they relate to trans* subjects. $12

The leading source of anthropological scholarship on the human condition, past and present

Publishing the best theoretical and empirical research across all subfields of the discipline, ranging from the origins of the human species to the interpretation of the complexities of modern life.

WENNER-GREN SYMPOSIUM SERIES - Supplement #9

Crisis, Value, and Hope: Rethinking the Economy

Crisis, Value, and Hope: Rethinking the Economy reexamines the nature of economic life from the perspective of contemporary economic and political anthropology, and explores how this rethinking informs other concerns in the discipline. Bringing together scholars from diverse backgrounds, this volume surveys how overlapping regimes of value factor into the realities of ordinary people, and the complex ways in which people in different ethnographic contexts negotiate often precarious conditions to make a life for themselves and for future generations. This supplement is the most recent addition to the Wenner-Gren Foundation's open access series highlighting important and emerging themes in anthropology across the subfields.

CUTTING EDGE AND CLASSIC FILMS

GREAT COLLECTIONS have formed the basis of DER's acquisition and distribution strategy since our founding in 1968 when we introduced the exemplary !Kung Bushmen films of John Marshall and the groundbreaking Yanomamo films by Timothy Asch. Since that time we have continued to see the value in presenting collected works by important filmmakers, such as Robert Gardner, George C. Stoney, and Richard Broadman. We also carry complete series such as the Netsilik Eskimo films produced in collaboration with the National Film Board of Canada, and the PBS broadcasted Odyssey series. To find out more, visit our website: www.der.org/films/collections.

Cultural Anthropology

A TOOLKIT FOR A GLOBAL AGE

KENNETH J. GUEST, Baruch College

Adopted at more than 130 schools in its first year, Ken Guest's Cultural Anthropology: A Toolkit for a Global Age shows students that now, more than ever, global forces affect local culture and that the tools of cultural anthropology are essential to living in a global society.

"By far the most up-to-date of the textbooks I have reviewed (and I review a LOT of textbooks). I liked the narrative tone of this chapter, and I am very attracted to the quality of the examples and recent literature included."

– JENNIFER WIES, Associate Professor of Anthropology, Eastern Kentucky University

"[Cultural Anthropology] assists students in coming to their own understanding of the value of an anthropological perspective, helping them make sense of the complexities of globalization and the constantly changing world around them."

– DEBORAH ALTAMARINO, Professor of Anthropology, SUNY Plattsburgh

"This book is timely, thorough, and well informed....The examples from the U.S. and elsewhere help readers see that anthropological thought and analysis can be applied equally to ourselves as to peoples far from us."

– KAREN STOCKER, Assistant Professor of Anthropology, California State University, Fullerton
